Mushroom Dying with Mayumi Fujio

12:30 PM - 04:30 PM PST

This class is available to both members and non-members. Member's cost is $45.00 and non-member's cost is $50.00.

The class:

We will dye a silk scarf with mushrooms using the Japanese technique of Shibori to get beautiful botanical patterns.

Bio:

Mayumi is a fiber artist using natural dye and mushroom dye with the technique called botanical printing which uses real leaves to transfer colors and shapes from plants onto natural fibers. She has been a wild forager since young and studied field botany for edible plants and medicinal plants. The last 10 years, she has foraged and studied mushrooms to eat and to dye. All the materials she uses are ethically harvested from the Bay area. Her art pieces are sold at art galleries, Art Museums in Seattle, San Francisco and other prestigious mushroom and art festivals. She won an artist award at Mill Valley Art show in 2023.
